1. Pursuant to the Medical Act 1971, you are required to register with the Malaysian Medical Council (MMC) to practice medicine in Malaysia. Hence, your application should be submitted prior to your medical practice.

2. Pursuant to Sections 12 and 13 of the Act, the Provisional Registration allows newly qualified practitioners to undertake the general clinical training needed for Full Registration under Section 14 of the Act.

2.1. You are entitled for provisional registration if you:
   (i). Possess a degree recognized by the MMC as listed in the Second Schedule or pass the Examination for Provisional Registration; and
   (ii). Are appointed/employed by the public authorities for the purpose of housemanship training.

3. A provisionally registered practitioner is only entitled to practice as a house officer in hospitals approved by the Medical Qualifying Committee under Section 13 of the Act.

4. Original certificates and documents must be brought to MMC during application for purpose of verification. Those who do not do so, will be requested to return with the original documents.

5. Pursuant to Section 19 of the Act, you are required to submit your recent original medical report (Date of the report should not exceed 3 months from the date of submission to MMC and it should be written by a Specialist/Consultant) and sick leaves if you:

5.1. Suffer from any medical illness or physical condition which may affect your professional duties; and

5.2. Have any mental problem and/or have been admitted into a hospital for any mental problem.

6. All documents should be certified according to the MMC Guideline for Document Verification. (Please refer the following link: http://www.mmc.gov.my/images/contents/downloadable/Guideline-doc-verify.pdf)

7. Should your printed names in any of the submitted documents differ, you are required to submit a Statutory Declaration (stating the name as on the identity card is the same individual)

8. If the original documents are not in either Bahasa Malaysia or English, you need to submit translated versions (original and not copy) in either Bahasa Malaysia or English along with certified copies of the document in its original language. Translated documents are only acceptable if carried out by qualified translators such as Institut Terjemahan dan Buku Malaysia (ITBM) or Officers of appropriate Embassy.

9. A RM100 fee (pursuant to Regulation 25 of the Medical Regulations 2017) in the form of electronic payment methods such as credit/debit card and online banking/transfer should be made to Malaysian Medical Council. All online banking/transfer should be made to our beneficiary account and please provide proof of payment.
